LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Glorious Reception to the Soldiers by the People of Huntingdon.

On Wednesday atnoon, a telegraphic despatch was received at this place from Altoona, requesting our citizens to prepare some refreshments for a portion of a train of thirty-three cars of soldiers, who would pass here at 5. 30 P. M. Long before the hour had arrived railroad street was a dense mass of living, moving, human beings, each one loaded with provisions of every description, for the soldiers.—The train did not arrive, however, until about an hour later than was expected. At last the shrill whistle of the locomotive was heard, and a train of sixteen cars was stretched along the street, and then, such cheering, such bursts of enthusiasm, we never before heard. Men, women and children, of every color, size, age, and description, rushed with eager delight, as a highly favored honor, to supply the soldiers with something to refresh the "inner man." The shops on railroad street were also thrown open, free to all soldiers. For some time, no particular enthusiasm was apparent, except the continual hum always attendant in large crowds, until the soldiers had eat, drank and were satisfied, when the shouts that rent the air caused every heart to beat quick and fast, and feel more determined to protect and defend the stars and stripes, the Union and the Constitution. The soldiers then sang several national airs, very appropriate to the occasion, and all expressed their determination to stand by the flag of our country until their last breath, and some swore vengeance against Jeff. Davis, and expressed their determination to spill his heart's blood. One of the soldiers informed us that Mr. Penny of Pittsburg, offered him $50,000 for Jeff. Davis' head, and he meant to take it to him. They gave three cheers for the ladies of Huntingdon, and not a few of them remarked that they had received better treatment from our citizens, than they every got anywhere before.

We have neither time nor space to give a correct description of all that transpired, during the twenty minutes they stopped with us; but suffice it to say, we never saw so much excitement as prevailed. The ladies, GOD BLESS THEM, ministering angels of love and peace, left nothing undone to satisfy the wants of our soldier guests, and one and all bid them God speed in their noble mission. They were all from the Western part of the State.—A great many of them wore the shirts seized at Pittsburg, a short time ago, and appeared quite proud of them.

We return our thanks to Lieutenant Griffith, of the Washington Invincibles, for the trouble he took to furnish us with a correct list of the names of the different companies, which we give below, and hope he may return home safely, after bravely defending the Stars and Stripes, as we feel assured he will, from the short acquaintance we have with him.

The names of the companies are as follows: City Guards, Duquesne Grays, Washington Infantry, Jackson Blues, Lawrence Guards, Washington Invincibles, U. S. Zouave Cadets, Union Cadets, Firemen's Legion, Butler Blues, Fort Pitt Guards, Monongahela Artillery—12.

Some half an hour later, the other two trains, making in all thirty-three cars, passed through, only stopping long enough to take in wood and water.

A FEW HOURS AT HARRISBURG.—We ran down to Harrisburg on Wednesday last—visited Camp Curtin, where we found some thirty-five hundred soldiers drilling and preparing for actual service. During the day and night some two thousand more brave fellows arrived—several companies of those arriving at midnight from Pittsburg, Armstrong and Washington counties, took up their quarters in the Lutheran Church until morning. In answer to questions whether they had had their supper, several remarked that their entire train had been fed by the people of Huntingdon and that they would not soon forget such kindness. Of course we did not deny being a citizen of the ancient borough. At 3 A. M. Thursday morning, we took the train for home, leaving the streets as full of people and as noisy as is usually the case in daylight in ordinary times.

DISAPPOINTED.—The companies now ready in this county, are anxiously waiting for a second requisition from the President. We understand that six companies are now full and ready to march. Two from the lower end, two from Huntingdon Furnace, one from Barree and Jackson, and the second from Huntingdon. Boys, you'll all have a chance to serve your country and that before many days. Be ready.

☞ The Standing Stone Guards were stationed in Havre de Grace on yesterday. They may not be there now, as the movements of Regiments are very sudden.

A NEW STYLE OF NOTE PAPER AND ENVELOPES—"red, white and blue"—for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

☞ A beautiful flag was hoisted over the Catholic Church, in this place, yesterday. If the Stars and Stripes are an emblem of our devotion to the Union and Constitution, then Huntingdon can boast of as much devotion and love for the Union as any other town in the State, for every house, store, hotel, shop, and shanty, for miles around, has one or more flags floating proudly in the breeze; and as long as we have breath, we will cry—

"Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner waving o'er us!"

TO THE LADIES OF HUNTINGDON.—It appears from a letter received from Wm. Shimp, Superintendent of Army Stores at Camp Curtin, Harrisburg, that the four boxes of provisions sent to the Standing Stone Guards by the Ladies of this place, did not arrive at Camp until after the company had left. The Superintendent very properly handed over the supplies to the Union Guards of Petersburg, commanded by Capt. Johnson, who for himself and his men, wishes to return thanks in this public manner to the Ladies of Huntingdon for the provisions which were handed over to them.

---

HOME GUARDS.—The first company of Home Guards was organized last night, by the election of the following officers: Captain, Wm. Dorris, Jr.; 1st Lieut., John Scott; 2d Lieut., J. Simpson Africa; Orderly Sergeant, George W. Garrettson; Ensign, David McMurtrie.

The company will meet in the Diamond, this Friday evening, at 6½ o'clock.

All who wish to join the Home Guard are requested to attend and give in their names.

OUR CORRESPONDENCE.

CASSVILLE, April 22d, 1861.

FRIEND LEWIS: For several days back, our little village has been thrown into an unusual excitement. The surrender of Fort Sumpter, was received by the citizens of this community with great chagrin and disappointment.—They are all union men here, and manifested that disposition, by raising a union pole on Saturday, 20th inst., about 102 feet high. Owing to some mismanagement, the flag did not reach its destined point, but after hard working, it was got partly up.

The flag is a beautiful piece of workmanship, and was made by the ladies of our village There was about two hundred people assembled to see the pole go up. Smith Valley was represented by a wagon drawn by six large horses. Trough Creek was represented by a wagon drawn by eight beautiful horses which were decorated with small flags. I observed the following significant inscription on one of the flags, on one of the front horses, "The Union must be preserved."—After the flag had been run up, Rev. C. Graham delivered an able and eloquent address, which elicited universal applause. At the conclusion of the speech, twelve hearty cheers were then given. Three for the speaker, three for the Stars and Stripes, three for the ladies who made the flag, and three for the young man who so generously climbed the pole to adjust the ropes before running the flag up.—After this the people dispersed quietly and peacefully to their respective homes.

"The Star Spangled Banner, Oh! long may it wave, O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave."

NOTICE.—The undersigned gives notice that they intend closing up their business at Coffee Run, and Newburg, owing to the heavy loss which they recently met with, and a desire to settle their business. In closing their business, they hope that they will not lose the confidence of the people for so doing, as they expect to open out soon again, or as soon as the difficulties which now surround us are settled. All persons indebted are requested to call and settle immediately and those having claims will present them for settlement.

SIMON COHN & CO.

Coffee Run, April 25, 1861.–tf.

---

TO MY FRIENDS.—I am sorry to close my business, but circumstances compel me to, much against my will. I sincerely thank my friends and the public for their patronage, and hope that I will not lose their confidence by the step I am now taking. I believe it better to close, as I am called to defend the Stars and Stripes, and shall act accordingly. If I should never get back, I take this occasion to bid my friends one all, good bye.—Those who I am indebted to, will please call and I will settle with them.

To the Patrons of the "Broad Top Miner."

No doubt many of the patrons of the Miner will be surprised when they see what a change has been made, and wonder why it is. We wish to explain, as we hear of considerable misunderstanding about what we are going to do, and what is to be the fate of the Miner.

Just after we issued our last paper, the services of our help were called into requisition, to assist in defending the Stars and Stripes, and to protect our glorious Union from the ravages of an excited, traitorous mob, which left us without the necessary aid to get out our paper. We have made every exertion to procure aid, but failed in all our endeavors, and in order to supply our readers regularly with the latest news, we have made an arrangement with Wm. Lewis, Editor of the Globe, to publish the Miner and Globe together regularly twice a week, until such time as we can procure the assistance of a printer. Our readers will lose nothing by the temporary change, as they will get the news twice a week instead of once, until the excitement, which now agitates the public mind, is somewhat abated, or until such time as we can resume the publication of the Miner in Coalmont. We wish to have it distinctly understood (notwithstanding the erroneous reports circulated by some,) that the publication of the Miner, in Coalmont, has not been abandoned. It is an impossibility for us to get out our paper without assistance, and it is impossible just at this time, for us to get assistance, as printers are bold, brave, daring, patriotic fellows, and a goodly number of them have taken up arms and gone to fight for their country, and were we not aware of the responsibility resting upon us, and the sense of duty we owe our readers, it is very probable we would have been off to the scene of warfare long ere this.

We trust this explanation will be understood by our patrons, for we do not wish erroneous reports in circulation about us. The Miner is one of fixed luminaries of Broad Top, and has too many good supporters to fall still-born to the ground. During our temporary so-journ in this place, we will pay attention to the affairs on Broad Top, and publish everything that may occur worthy of being recorded. We want some good man to keep us posted in matters and things that we may give them publicity.

A. TYHURST.

Read the Papers.

Let every man, woman and child who can read, read the papers. And those who cannot read, let them ask others to read for them. Never, in our lives, has there been a time like the present, in which so many vast and important issues are at stake. It may truly be said that the question now before us as a people, is a question of life or death. Our Government has been assailed; the Institutions under which we have lived for the last eighty years, and under whose benign influence we have enjoyed so much peace and prosperity, are to be destroyed if possible, and a reign of terror and oppression is to take its place. Let every one, then, look this question in the face; let every man and woman reflect upon it and ask, how shall it be answered? Shall we tamely succumb, or shall we resist? Shall we continue to be Freemen, or shall we allow a Southern rabble to take from us our liberties and our Flag? We should rather be willing to be shot down and rot in the dust!

Let us then hunt up the papers.—Hold not back for a few dimes or dollars, and neglect to keep yourself well informed in regard to all the movements of the day. It is necessary to have light and truth before the mind, in order to guide the judgment safely and the will promptly. Let us, then, diligently read the papers.

In times like these are in which we find ourselves now, to be placid, it is necessary for every member of society to be active, and endeavor to do something to help on the noble struggle in which the whole North seems to be engaged. We would, therefore, take occasion to call the attention of the LADIES to a work in which they can lend a helping hand. And this is to make lint. Many of our eastern ladies are now actively employing their leisure moments in this way, and we trust that we have many patriotic wives and daughters in our own county, who only want the hint, in order to secure their co-operation. There is scarcely a family among us, but what has some old linen laying about our homes, and of not much consequence, or use. Now let this be torn apart by the tender hand of our female friends, and sent off to some of our Military companies and their officers, and of how much importance may this old linen become! If our soldiers must bleed, and if their limbs must be bruised and torn in the deadly strife for victory, how soft and cooling to their bleeding wounds would be such an appliance, both as an instrument of relief, and a token of respect and patriotic regard. Any preparation of this kind can be very easily sent to our soldiery through any of the leading men of this place.

MARYLAND AND THE TROOPS FOR THE CAPITAL.

Highly Important Letter from Secretary Seward.

The following letter was addressed, on Monday, to Governor Hicks, of Maryland, by the Secretary of State:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, April 22, 1861.

His Excellency Thomas H. Hicks, Governor of Maryland:

SIR: I have had the honor to receive your communication of this morning, in which you informed me that you have felt it to be your duty to advise the President of the United States to order elsewhere the troops off Annapolis, and also that no more be sent through Maryland; and that you have further suggested that Lord Lyons be requested to act as mediator between the contending parties in our country to prevent the effusion of blood.

The President directs me to acknowledge the receipt of that communication, and to assure you that he has weighed the counsels which it contains with the respect which he habitually cherishes for the Chief Magistrates of the several States, and especially for yourself. He regrets, as deeply as any magistrate or citizen of the country can, that demonstrations against the safety of the United States, with very extensive preparations for the effusion of blood, have made it his duty to call out the force to which you alludo.

The force now sought to be brought through Maryland is intended for nothing but the defence of this capital.—The President has necessarily confided the choice of the national highway which that force shall take in coming to this city to the Lieutenant General commanding the army of the United States, who, like his only predecessor, is not less distinguished for his humanity than for his loyalty, patriotism and distinguished public service.

The President instructs me to add that the national highway thus selected by the Lieutenant General has been chosen by him, upon consultation with prominent magistrates and citizens of Maryland, as the one which, while a route is absolutely necessary, is further removed from the populous cities of the State, and with the expectation that it would therefore be the least objectionable one.

The President cannot but remember that there has been a time in the history of our country when a General of the American Union, with forces designed for the defence of its capital, was not unwelcome anywhere in the State of Maryland, and certainly not at Annapolis, then, as now, the capital of that patriotic State, and then, also, one of the capitals of the Union.

If eighty years could have obliterated all the noble sentiments of that age in Maryland, the President would be hopeful, nevertheless, that there is one that would forever remain there and everywhere. That sentiment is that no domestic contention whatever, that may arise among the parties of this Republic, ought in any case to be referred to any foreign arbitrament, least of all to the arbitrament of an European monarchy.

I have the honor to be, with distinguished consideration, your Excellency's most obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

Important from Baltimore and Washington.

We take the following from the Philadelphia Press of Wednesday:

"Last evening we had an interview with a gentleman of distinction in this country, who left Washington yesterday morning at half past seven o'clock. He gives us the startling intelligence that Washington is in a much more defenceless condition than we had been led to expect from previous reports. No troops have reached there since the arrival of the First Massachusetts Regiment, and no intelligence of them had been received, with the exception of a rumor that they had landed at Annapolis. General Butler, in command of the regiment, attempted to land at the navy yard with his men, but the opposition was so great that they re-embarked on board the vessels, and were compelled to go towards the Potomac, The Commissary of the regiment was arrested at Annapolis.—He made his escape in a disguise, and arrived at Washington on Monday afternoon. It is supposed they will attempt to reach Washington by way of the Potomac.

It is rumored that the authorities of Virginia are establishing batteries at Arlington Heights, a position commanding Washington City. A. H. Stephens is reported to be in Richmond, while General Beauregard, our informant has no doubt, is at Portsmouth, Va., with five thousand men. Jefferson Davis is supposed to be in Montgomery awaiting the concentration of his troops. The impression was that Beauregard was meditating an assault on Washington."

WAR NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

Traitor Arrested.

HANOVER, April 22.—Capt. Jeniper, a southern man by birth, stationed at Carlisle, resigned his commission informally yesterday and immediately left that place, after obtaining all the movement of our troops for the rebel States in order to inform them of the movements and intercept our men, but Gov. Curtin knowing him to be a secessionist, had appointed several gentlemen to watch his movements.

He was immediately followed after his flight, arrested at Hanover junction, and from thence transported back again to Carlisle as a prisoner of war. He will be court-martialed in due time, and receive a traitor's sentence. A man that will eat the bread of the government, and then forsake it in hour of need, is not fit to die an honorable death. Gov. Curtin deserves great credit for vigilance.

Greatly Overestimated.

HARPER'S FERRY, April 22.—The number of men reported to be in possession of Harper's Ferry has been greatly overestimated by the dispatches sent here. The number is small, and they occupy now a worthless place. The Government arms had all been removed before its destruction.

From Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, April 23.—A movement is on foot, and will probably be adopted in a day or two, between the civil and military authorities of Louisville, Jeffersonville and New Albany, to prevent invasion by hostile troops from either North and South, so long as Kentucky preserves her present status.

Seven companies of the State Guard, embracing an aggregate of 650 men, under Col. Tilghman, have been organized at Paducah, Kentucky.

The Union sentiment is greatly on the increase throughout the State, and I am now well convinced that she will remain as she has since her formation—a firm adherent of union and brotherly love with all our sister States.—In case we secede, it will only be by the action of the Northern States.—Kentucky will have to be forced out of the Union.

Reinforcement of Forts McHenry and Monroe.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—A United States naval officer arrived here states that the steamer Spaulding landed her troops, reinforcing Fort McHenry very quietly. The Baltimoreans were expecting her arrival, intending to capture her, but she started down the bay, frustrating their designs,

Fortress Monroe has also been reinforced with the Massachusetts regiments.

It is also certain that the Sixth Massachusetts regiment has possession of Annapolis.

Important Report from Washington.

Difficulties with the Baltimore Authorities Arranged.—The Railroads and Telegraph Lines to be re-opened.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Collector Barney states that a gentleman officially connected with the Government says that he has information from Washington that a correspondence has been opened with the Baltimore authorities, resulting in an undertaking on the part of Baltimore to repair the railroad bridges, telegraph lines, and to keep the communication open for passengers, mails and dispatches, as well as the troops.

Harrisburg Affairs--Military Movements.

HARRISBURG, April 23.—The troops encamped at Cockeysville, have all left there and have been transferred over the York and Pennsylvania Railroads, to Columbia and Lancaster, on their way to Philadelphia.

A report prevails that Lieut. Jenifer had deserted from the Carlisle Barracks, and having a full knowledge of the plans of the campaign in this State, parties were sent out in search of him. He was overtaken, in Hanover, York county, and returned to Carlisle.

Major General Keim says that 80 Pennsylvania companies have arrived, making a total of 6,200. About 4,000 more will be here by Wednesday.

A strong Union meeting has been held at Hagerstown, Md., which has quieted the fears of the people at Chambersburg.

Governor Curtin declares emphatically that Gen. Small marched his troops to Baltimore from no order received through him.

Caleb Cushing arrived here yesterday, having left Washington on Sunday. Being recognized, he was for a time threatened by crowds at Chambersburg and Carlisle. The authorities, however, interfered to prevent it. He left here yesterday for the East via Philadelphia. He avowed to Gideon J. Ball that he was on his way to join one of the State regiments to fight for the Union.

All the bridges on the Pennsylvania Railroad are carefully watched by armed men to prevent any parties from Maryland from accomplishing their destruction, which is supposed to be designed for the purpose of preventing the transit of troops on that road.

The ladies of this city have manufactured, during the last two or three days, about 10,000 haversacks for the troops.

The Southern Congregation gave up their church for the headquarters of the Ohio troops.

HARRISBURG, April 23.—News has reached here that Gov. Hicks has issued a proclamation calling an extra session of the Maryland Legislature.

Lieut. Jenifer, U. S. A., who is suspected of treason, has not escaped, as has been reported here.

There are intimations of a probable invasion of Pennsylvania from Maryland, near Hanover, York county.—Troops will be sent there to-day.

Lieut. Foxhall A. Parker, of the United States Navy, was arrested here this morning, by the Vigilance Committee, on a charge of having uttered treasonable sentiments at Pittsburgh. On examination it was found that he had been mistaken for his brother, William H. Parker, who has joined the Southern Navy. He was at once honorably acquitted amid the cheers of those present.

A grant number of additional troops from various points of Pennsylvania, arrived here last night and this morning.

[The Lieut. Jenifer, referred to in the above despatch, is Lieut. Walton H. Jenifer, of the Second Regiment of Cavalry. He is a Marylander, and, we presume, a son or other near relative, of the late Hon. Daniel Jenifer, former member of Congress, and, during Harrison's and Tyler's Administration, United States Minister to Austria.]

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 23.—Passengers arrived here, bring Baltimore papers of this morning, from which the following items have been gathered:

The excitement of Sunday had been followed by comparative quiet, and the city continues in good order, the people generally be tired of startling rumors. In every direction scouts have been sent out, to guard against the approach of the troops. Nearly all the city bar-rooms were closed on Monday. During the morning, several messengers from the Cockeysville camp brought information of the movements of the Northern troops.—They reported that the troops were from 2,000 to 3,000 strong. but had no tents, and were short of provisions.—They permitted no citizen of Maryland to go over any of the bridges without a strict examination.

By order of Marshal Kane, several wagon-loads of bread and meat were sent to the camp of the Pennsylvanians, a number being sick and suffering. Three Pennsylvanians had died, and were buried in the camp, and a number were sick. The troops had abandoned the encampment, and it was supposed were awaiting the cars to return to Harrisburg, or within the borders of Pennsylvania. Only half of them were armed.

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 24.—Fugitives from Baltimore that left last evening, report all quiet there, but the calm resembles that which precedes a storm.

Extras were published at Baltimore containing the reported capture of Fort Pickens, but there were great doubts about it.

[The reported capture of Fort Pickens must be unfounded, as despatches from New Orleans, of yesterday's date, do not mention it.—REPORTER.]

Later From Baltimore.

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 24.—A gentleman has passed through from Baltimore, which he left early this morning. The utmost reliance can be placed on the following information supplied by him:

He states that Fort McHenry had certainly been reinforced by 600 men. The Baltimoreans had planted cannon pointed towards the fort, but the commander required its removal, and this was complied with. Cannon planted against another side of the fort was also removed.

It is stated that an agreement has been entered into between the authorities of Baltimore and the Government for re-building the bridges at the expense of Baltimore, and the road to be in running order again in ten days.

There was no report of the capture of Fort Pickens, at Pensacola, yesterday.

From Washington via Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, April 24th.—An intelligent New York merchant, who left Washington at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, says that there are more than 10,000 men in Washington.

Provisions are becoming scarce in that city, and the Government was supplying flour to the families at $8 per barrel. This is the flour seized at Georgetown on Sunday.

Military officers assured our informant that there were but little over 2000 Virginians lying near Alexandria, but not more than half of them were armed.

Gen. Beauregard is known by the Government to have been in Richmond on Tuesday.

The Baltimoreans have sent troops to intercept the New York Seventh Regiment, on its road to Washington junction.

Gen. Scott's Pickets are gradually extending toward the Annapolis junction, from Washington, and they will be assisted, if attacked, at all hazards.

The Eighth Massachusetts Regiment is trying to force a passage up the Potomac to Washington, If they cannot effect it, they will return to Annapolis.

The ship Monticello was brought to by the firing of Fort Washington, and anchored under the battery.

Washington is almost deserted by the residents and strangers. On Tuesday sixteen strangers dined at the National and nine at Brown's Hotel.

Two Pennsylvania Regiments have reached Chambersburg and encamped there.

A portion of 10,000 arms, shipped from the Springfield Arsenal, have arrived here.

The 9th and 10th Regiments have been organized and are ready to march.

From Washington.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The New York Times' evening edition says, that Judge Robinson, of Richmond, Va., offered General Scott a Commission as Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate army.

The General interrupted him with the declaration that if he went any further in making such a proposition that he (Mr. Robinson) would not be permitted to get back to Richmond alive, adding, that having sworn to support the Constitution of the United States he realized all the honorable obligations of that oath, and should of course observe them.

The Sixth Massachusets Regiment attracted marked attention in Washington.

The good citizens of Maryland and Virginia protest that there is not the slightest design on the part of those States to march on Washington, but they are probably not advised of the purpose of the Disunion leaders.

Gen. Beauregard is reported to have arrived at Richmond, and and it is believed was seen reconnoitering near Washington the same night.

There were no Virgirginia troops on Arlington Heights.

The people of Washington are much alarmed, and all who could have left the city. The hotels are nearly deserted, and there is some talk of closing them.

The Phila. Bulletin of this morning contains the following:

Later From Annapolis and Washington.

We have direct and authentic news from Annapolis up to five o'clock yesterday afternoon, at which hour Maj. P. Adams Ames, of the Massachusetts Commissariat, left there, arriving here this morning at five o'clock, thus practically demonstrating that communication between Philadelphia and Annapolis requires only twelve hours.

When Major Ames left Annapolis, Colonel Butler, with the Massachusetts Eighth Regiment, and the New York Seventh Regiment, were in quiet possession of the town, the troops having been landed without difficulty.

The rails on the railroad between Annapolis and the Junction had been removed in certain places, by the Railroad Company, not by the mob; and this was done in such a way that they could easily be replaced again.

Colonel Butler was taking measures to have the rails relaid, and was confident that there would be no difficulty in re-establishing the railroad communication with Washington, and keeping it open.

News from Washington up to yesterday afternoon had reached Annapolis before Major Ames left. All was quiet, and there was no apprehension of any immediate attack from the Virginians.

THE VERY LATEST NEWS

☞ From the latest intelligence received last night we are inclined to believe that the capitol may now be considered entirely safe. The New York Seventh Regiment and Colonel Butler's Massachusetts Regiment met with so hostile a reception when they first attempted to land at Annapolis, that it was considered advisable to await further reinforcements, which in due time arrived. They consisted of the 4,500 troops which left New York on Sunday morning. Their united force was amply sufficient to silence all opposition.

Arrested for Treason

CINCINNATI, April 24.—Ogilvie Byron Young was arrested last evening at the Spencer House, by the United States marshal, on the charge of treason. Important correspondence was found in his possession. He will be examined before the United States Court to-morrow.

☞ There are a number of Baltimoreans now in Philadelphia who were compelled to flee on account of their political opinions. Many of them are without means.

☞ The Baltimore Sun says that, although the Confederate troops were not at Richmond, they would be there in a few days with an advance guard of 5,000 South Carolinians, and be rapidly reinforced, the enrolment of 30,000 having been ordered.

☞ A correspondent of the Exchange, writing from Montgomery, says that it is currently reported that although Jeff. Davis is not at Richmond, he soon will be there, and, making that his headquarters, assume the command of the Confederate army.

WHAT THE CATHOLICS THINK.—This week's Tablet, a leading organ of the Catholic population of New York, says:

"The secessionists have now begun the war, not only do they talk of resisting the United States Government but of making an aggressive war upon it. Walker, the Secretary of War of the so-called Confederate Government, in a speech delivered at Montgomery on Friday evening last, uttered the threat that before 1st May next the secession ensign shall take the place of the time-honored banner of the American Republic over the Capitol at Washington. The United States must now be prepared to defend themselves. The President has called for seventy-five thousand men and summoned a special session of Congress. New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio have already spoken out. The United States Government must put forth all its energy to put down the rebellion, and every true man must now stand up for the Stars and Stripes. God save the Union!"

Sherman's Battery to go through Baltimore.

A gentleman direct from Washington, whose statement can be relied upon, informs us that yesterday he struck the Philadelphia road at Smyrna, about twenty miles below Wilmington. Sherman's Battery, horses, guns and men, were at this place.—There was a train of fifty or sixty cars containing soldiers, all armed. There were several large siege guns on platform cars, and they were all bound for Baltimore. This our informant ascertained from the officers themselves.—There was a large number of mechanics along to erect bridges. The expedition would go as far as possible by train, and the talk was that they were to make a march of some distance—probably from Havre De Grace to Baltimore, 38 miles. They freely expressed their determination to go through, and were prepared for the undertaking.

Latest from Baltimore.

The latest information from Baltimore we find in the Harrisburg Telegraph of last night. The populace of Baltimore have been excited to the utmost phrenzy, and the city is entirely under the control of the mob. Along such thoroughfares as an invading army would likely march, the roofs of houses have been supplied with all kinds af missiles, anchors, grindstones, pig iron, and everything of a weight sufficient to crush an army on the street. Hundreds of families are leaving. The road from Baltimore to points in Pennsylvania is crowded with carriages conveying the families of those who are able to leave, from the scene of anticipated conflict.

Military Roads.

☞ By an order issued by Gen. Scott the Military Department of Washington is extended so as to include, in addition to the District of Columbia and Maryland, the States of Delaware and Pennsylvania, and will be commanded by Gen. Patterson, belonging to the volunteers of the latter States. The volunteers of Pennsylvania will be stationed all along the railroad from Wilmington, Del., to Washington City, in sufficient numbers and in such proximity as to give protection to the road, its rails, bridges, cars and stations.

HOMES FOR THE INDUSTRIOUS IN THE GARDEN STATE OF THE WEST,

The Illinois Central Railroad Company have for Sale

1,200,000 ACRES

Of Rich Farming Lands in Tracts of Forty Acres and Upward, on Long Credit and at Low Prices.

MECHANICS, FARMERS, AD WORKI ONEN.

The attention of the enterprising and industrious portion of the community is directed to the following statements and liberal inducements offered them by the

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY,

Which, as they will perceive, will enable them, by proper energy, perseverance, and industry, to provide comfortable and permanent homes for themselves and families, with, comparatively speaking, very little capital.

LAND OF ILLINOIS.

No State in the valley of the Mississippi offers so great an inducement to the settler as the State of Illinois.—There is no portion of the world where all of the conditions of climate and soil so admirably combine to produce those two great staples, corn and wheat, as the prairies of Illinois.

RICH ROLLING PRAIRIE LANDS.

The deep rich loam of the prairies is cultivated with such wonderful facility that the farmers of the Eastern and Middle States are moving to Illinois in great numbers. The area of Illinois is about equal to that of England, and the soil is so rich that it will support twenty millions of people.

EASTERN AND SOUTHERN MARKETS.

These lands are contiguous to a railroad seven hundred miles in length, which connects with other roads and navigable lakes and rivers, thus affording an unbroken communication with the Eastern and Southern markets.

APPLICATION OF CAPITAL.

Thus far capital and labor have been applied to develop ing the soil; the great resources of the State in coal and iron are almost untouched. The invariable rule that the mechanic arts flourish best where food and fuel are cheapest, will follow at an early day in Illinois, and in the course of the next ten years the natural laws and necessities of the case warrant the belief that at least five hundred thousand people will be engaged in the State of Illinois in the various manufacturing employments.

RAILROAD SYSTEM OF ILLINOIS.

Over $100,000,000 of private capital have been expended on the railroad system of Illinois. Inasmuch as part of the income from several of these works, with a valuable public fund in lands, go to diminish the State expenses, the taxes are light, and must consequently every day decrease.

THE STATE DEBT.

The State debt is only $10,105,308 14, and within the last three years has been reduced $2,959,740 80; and we may reasonably expect that in ten years it will become extinct.

PRESENT POPULATION.

The State is rapidly filling up with population; 853,025 persons having been added since 1850, making the population 1,719,496—a ratio of 102 per cent. in ten years.

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

The agricultural products of Illinois are greater than those of any other State. The products sent out during the past year exceeded 1,600,000 tons. The wheat crop of 1860 approaches 35,000,000 bushels, while the corn crop yields not less than 140,000,000 bushels.

FERTILITY OF SOIL.

Nowhere can the industrious farmer secure such immediate results for his labor as upon these prairie soils, they being composed of a deep rich loam, the fertility of which is unsurpassed by any on the globe.

TO ACTUAL CULTIVATORS.

Since 1854 the Company have sold 1,300,000 acres. They sell only to actual cultivators, and every contract contains an agreement to cultivate. The road has been constructed through these lands at an expense of $30,000,000. In 1850, the population of the 49 counties through which it passes was only 335,508, since which 479,293 have been added, making the whole population 814,801—a gain of 143 per cent.

EVIDENCES OF PROSPERITY.

As an evidence of the thrift of the people, it may be stated that 600,000 tons of freight, including 8,000,000 bus. of grain and 200,000 barrels of flour, were forwarded over the line last year.

EDUCATION.

Mechanics and workingmen will find the free school system encouraged by the State and endowed with a large revenue for the support of schools. Their children can live in sight of the church and school house, and grow up with the prosperity of the leading state in the Great Western Empire.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The prices of these lands vary from $6 to $25 per acre, according to location, quality, &c. First-class farming lands sell for about $10 or $12 per acre; and the relative expense of subduing prairie land, as compared with woodland, is in the ratio of one to ten in favor of the former. The terms of sale for the bulk of these lands will be at six per cent per annum, and six interest notes at six per cent. payable respectively in one, two, three, four, five, and six years from date a sale; and four notes for principal, payable in four, five, six, and seven years, from date of sale; the contract stipulating that one-tenth of the tract purchased shall be fenced and cultivated, each and every year for five years from the date of sale, so that at the end of five years one-half shall be fenced and under cultivation,

TWENTY PER CENT. WILL BE DEDUCTED, from the valuation for cash, except the same should be at six dollars per acre, when the cash price will be $5 dollars. Pamphlets descriptive of the lands, soil, climate, productions, prices, and terms of payment, can be had on application to A. W. ROSTER,

Land Commissioner, Illinois Central Railroad,

Chicago, Illinois.

For the names of the towns, villages, and cities situated upon the Illinois Central Railroad, see pages 188, 189, and 190 Appleton's Railway Guide. [Feb. 13, '61–wtf.
